Grain

Afra Grain was established to support all the commercial activities and services of Afra Integrated Value Chains Holding. Ghalat Bakhtar Terminal Services Company as a mechanized unloading and loading system, and Navid Khalij Fars Transport Company as a road transport company (in the near future, shipping and combined transportation) are the subsidiaries of this section.

Imam Khomeini Port Special Economic Zone has a strategic position by supplying more than 70% of the country's basic goods, in order to ensure food security. Therefore, establishing a terminal with integrated and mechanized unloading and loading operations, especially for grains, is vital and necessary.

Ghalat Bakhtar Terminal Services Company has revolutionized the grain transportation industry by constructing a state-of-the-art terminal.

Equipped with integrated and mechanized systems, this terminal has reduced vessel turnaround time by up to 50% and significantly increased operational efficiency.

By adhering to the highest international standards for cargo receiving, handling, storage, and safety, the terminal has become a new hub in the country's grain industry.

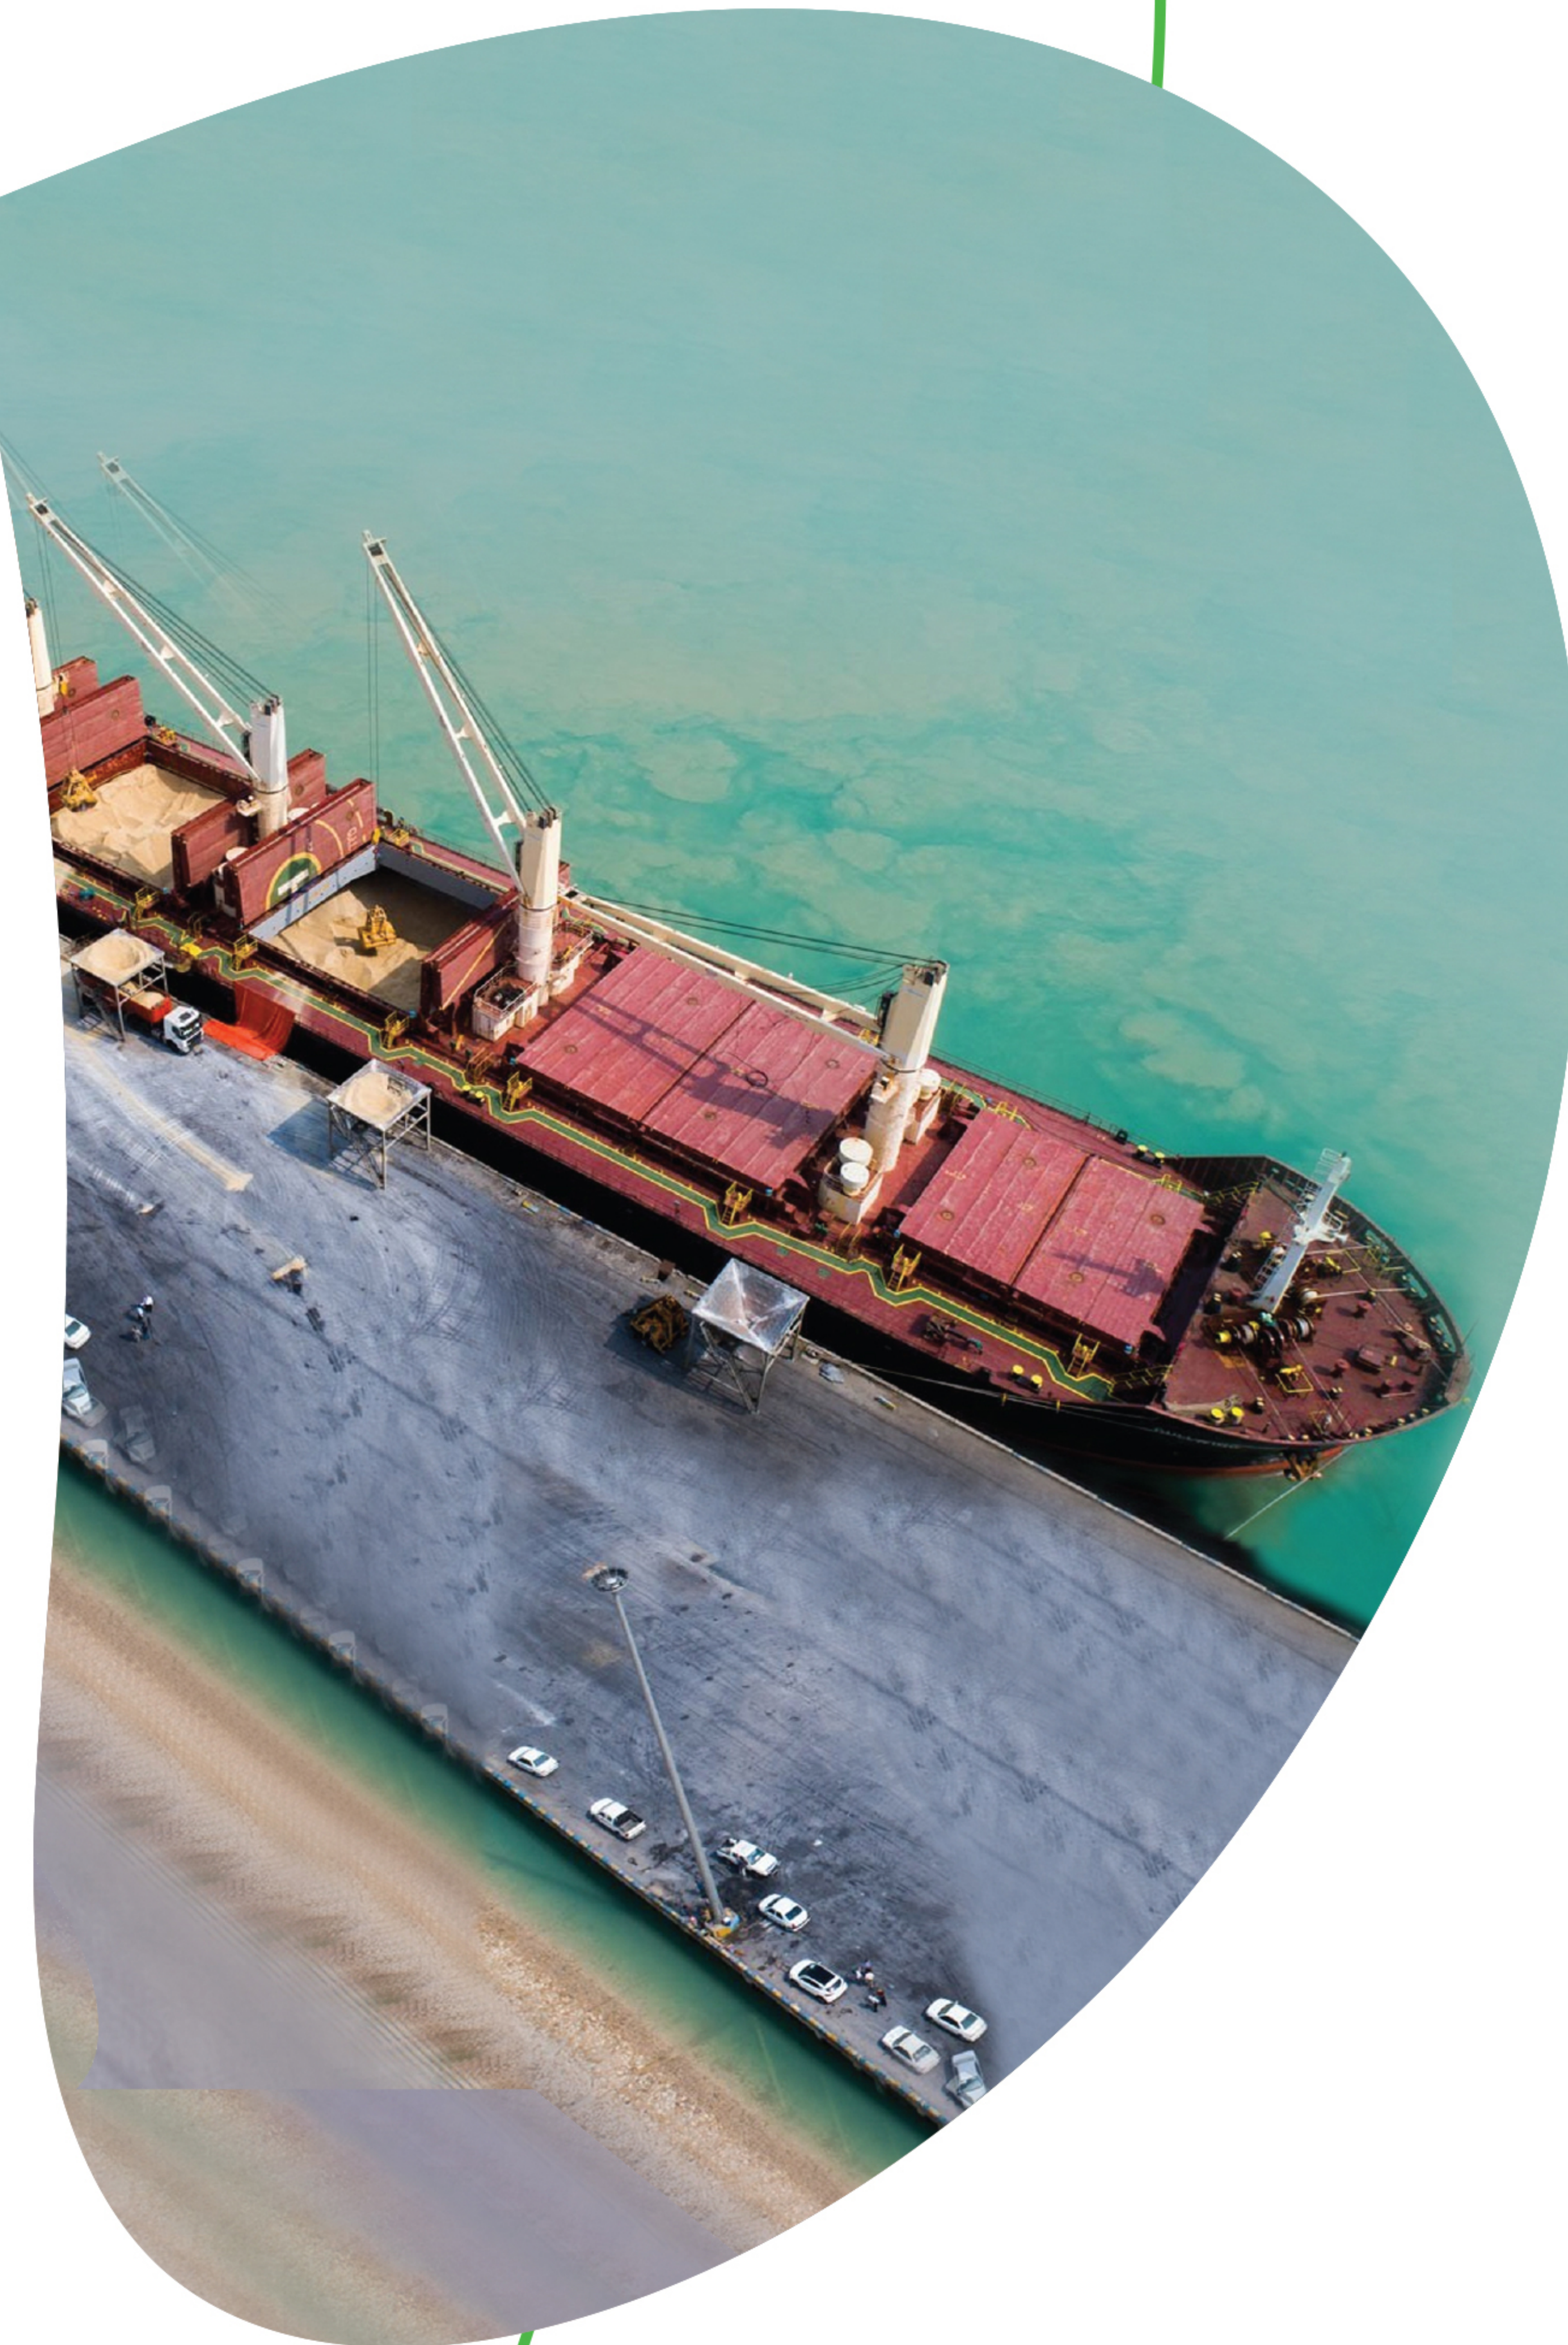

The significant reduction in manual handling, improved worker safety, and reduced environmental pollution are among the other benefits of this modern terminal.

With these actions, Imam Khomeini Port has taken a significant step towards ensuring a sustainable and efficient supply of grains, contributing to the nation's food security is in the process of completing the construction and obtaining the necessary licenses to launch its own road transportation fleet.

Leveraging the strategic location of Bandar Mahshahr and with a 30,000 square meter area, the company is poised to handle a significant portion of the group's cargo transportation, including grains, crude oil, and products manufactured by plants located in the port. The launch of this fleet will facilitate and optimize the flow of raw materials and finished products within the group.
